

MUSC Brain & Spine Tumor Program Presents

OPEN to the ALL!

Brain Tumor Action Week

Brain Tumor Action Week is a nationally recognized initiative of the brain tumor community to educate the public about brain tumors and to convince others to join in the fight to increase research funding, awareness and education for brain tumors.

May 2 - 7

5/2/11-5/ 6/11 Display Table FREE

Free brochures and a chance to enter drawing for prizes!
9am – 4pm at Hollings Cancer Center (1st floor lobby)

5/3/11 Dr. Ann Kulze Lecture FREE

“Just Say Whoa! To Cancer”

A motivational speech on health and nutrition for ALL cancer patients!

5:30pm, reception to follow at Hollings Cancer Center (Conference Rm 120) *RSVP Required**

5/4/11 Brain Tumor Action Fair FREE

Information on support services and fundraising opportunities!
11am – 2pm at the MUSC Horseshoe

5/5/11 Panel Discussion FREE

A discussion with Neuro-Oncology Multidisciplinary Physician Team Members
2:30pm at Hollings Cancer Center (Conference Room 120) *RSVP Required**

5/5/11 Brain Tumor Vigil Service FREE

Join us for this vigil in support of those who need healing and in remembrance of those who are no longer with us.

5:30pm at Hollings Cancer Center, Healing Garden

5/6/11 Dr. Gabriel Martz Lecture FREE

“What Seizures Are and Why They Happen as a Result of Brain Tumors”

1:30pm at Hollings Cancer Center (Conference Room 120) *RSVP Required**

5/7/11 Benefit Concert for MUSC Brain Tumor Research

7pm until close at The Windjammer on the Isle of Palms, $10 through etix.com and $15 at the door

Follow us on facebook at www.facebook.com/MUSCBrainandSpineTumorProgram.

To RSVP or for more information visit www.musc.edu/neurosciences/BTAW or contact Rachel Beard at beardr@musc.edu or 843.792.6592.

Come take a bite out of brain cancer!